

THE CROFFLE GUYS

Croffle is new, exciting, and waiting to be properly explored.

For a lot of people, it's a first-time experience!
Which is why the content doesn't just showcase, it guides a consumer's journey.

From awareness to craving to connection.

From education, to habit, to love.

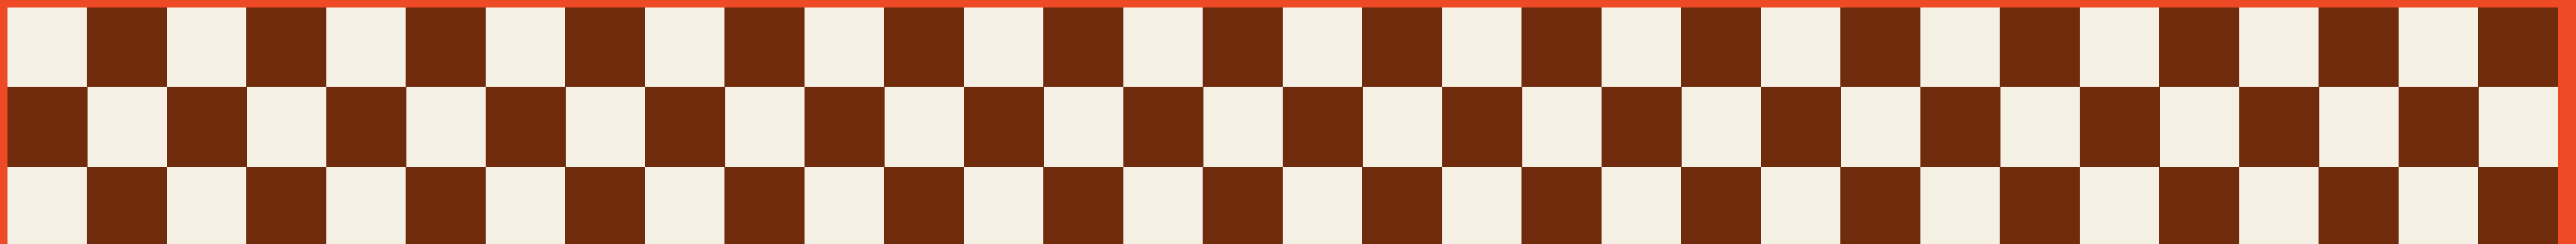

Content Pillars

Pillar	Objective
Product-Focused Content	Make people understand what a croffle is and crave it.
Repeatable & Scalable Content	Create scalable IPs that travel across cities and stay relevant over time.
Customer-Focused Content	Transform everyday customer experiences into relatable content that builds loyalty.

PRODUCT-FOCUSED CONTENT

ORIGIN STORY

CROFFLE IS ALREADY AN UNCONVENTIONAL PRODUCT, SO IT DESERVES STORYTELLING THAT'S JUST AS UNEXPECTED!

Instead of explaining what it is, we touch upon each croffle with a wildly exaggerated & completely absurd backstory.

So we create a skit series where each croffle has a bizarre beginning, from accidental inventions to over-the-top fictional moments.

BECAUSE SOMETIMES THE STORY IS WHAT MAKES THE PRODUCT UNFORGETTABLE.

SAMPLE

What started as a simple decision between two chefs quickly turned into a quiet competition, with each adding more chocolate than the other. Somewhere along the way, stopping stopped being an option.

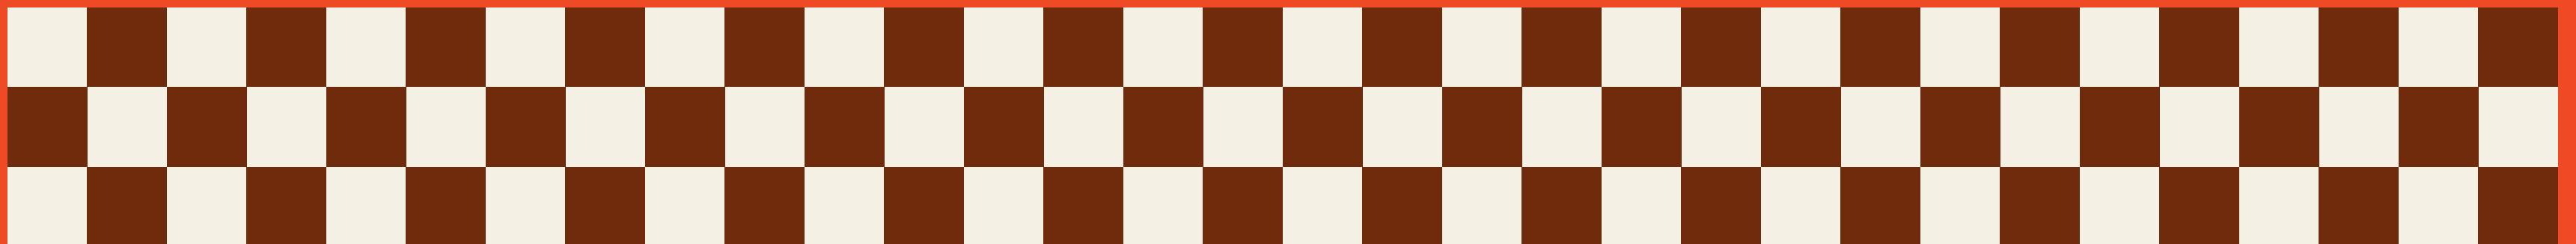

A late-night rewatch of Koi Mil Gaya sparked a nostalgic craving for Bournvita. Instead of pouring it into a glass, it found its way into a croffle, and that's how the Bournvita Blast was born.

MAKING THE MENUS

DELHI-CODED

Delhi doesn't just speak, it performs through language.

Slang signals attitude, familiarity, and belonging.

If something "sounds Delhi," it's instantly more acceptable.

If it doesn't, it stays outsider.

THE CROFFLE GUYS' MENU IS REWRITTEN IN DELHI SLANG.

Selected influencers enter speaking in a super uppity SoBo/South Delhi accent. The moment they read the menu, their tone flips to a hardcore Delhi accent.

Mechanism

- › Influencers walk into the store in an exaggerated polished accent
- › They pick up / read the menu
- › As they read the Delhi-slang descriptions:
→ their accent switches instantly

REPEATABLE & SCALABLE CONTENT

CROFFLE CONFESSIONS

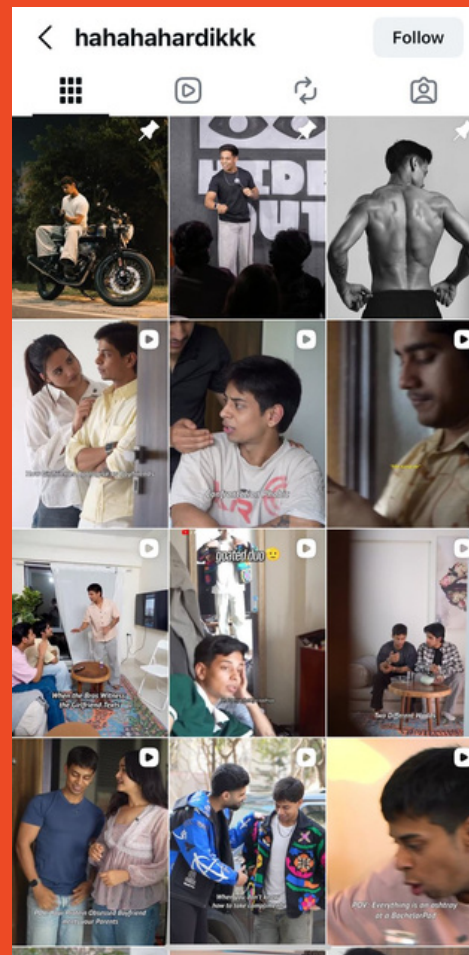

DELHI THRIVES ON OPINIONS.

EVERYDAY CONVERSATIONS ARE FILLED WITH STRONG TAKES, DEBATES, AND UNSOLICITED VIEWPOINTS ABOUT THE CITY, ITS CULTURE, AND ITS HABITS.

ALLERGIC TO STUPIDITY

WE LAUNCH A SHORT-FORM, IN-STORE TALK SHOW WHERE HOT TAKES ABOUT DELHI ARE DISCUSSED USING A CROFFLE AS THE MIC.

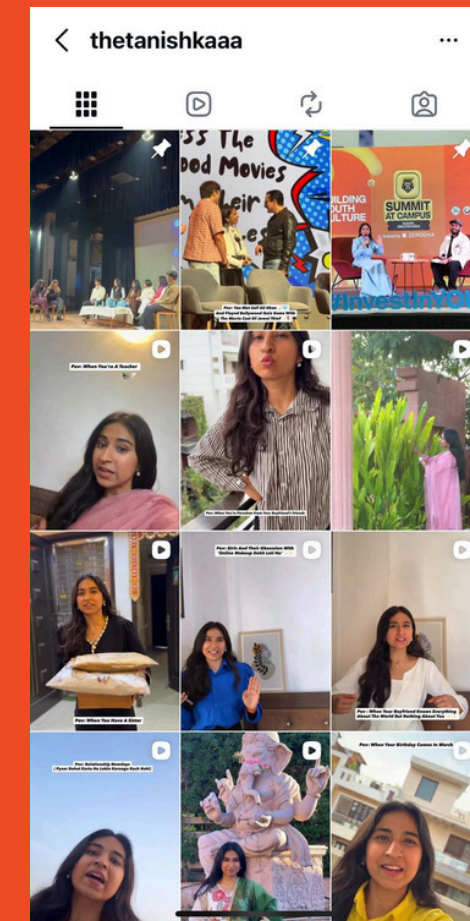

THE CROFFLE ITSELF BECOMES THE MIC, & THE TRIGGER FOR UNFILTERED, OPINION-LED CONVERSATIONS.

“I FEEL LIKE SOMETIMES WE’RE LISTENING TO TOO MUCH PUNJABI MUSIC”

UNLIKELY JODI

A CROISSANT AND A WAFFLE WERE NEVER MEANT TO BE A JODI.
BUT TOGETHER, THEY JUST WORK.

BUT WHAT DO WE DO WITH THIS KNOWLEDGE?

We bring together unlikely jodis, & let the chaos decide!

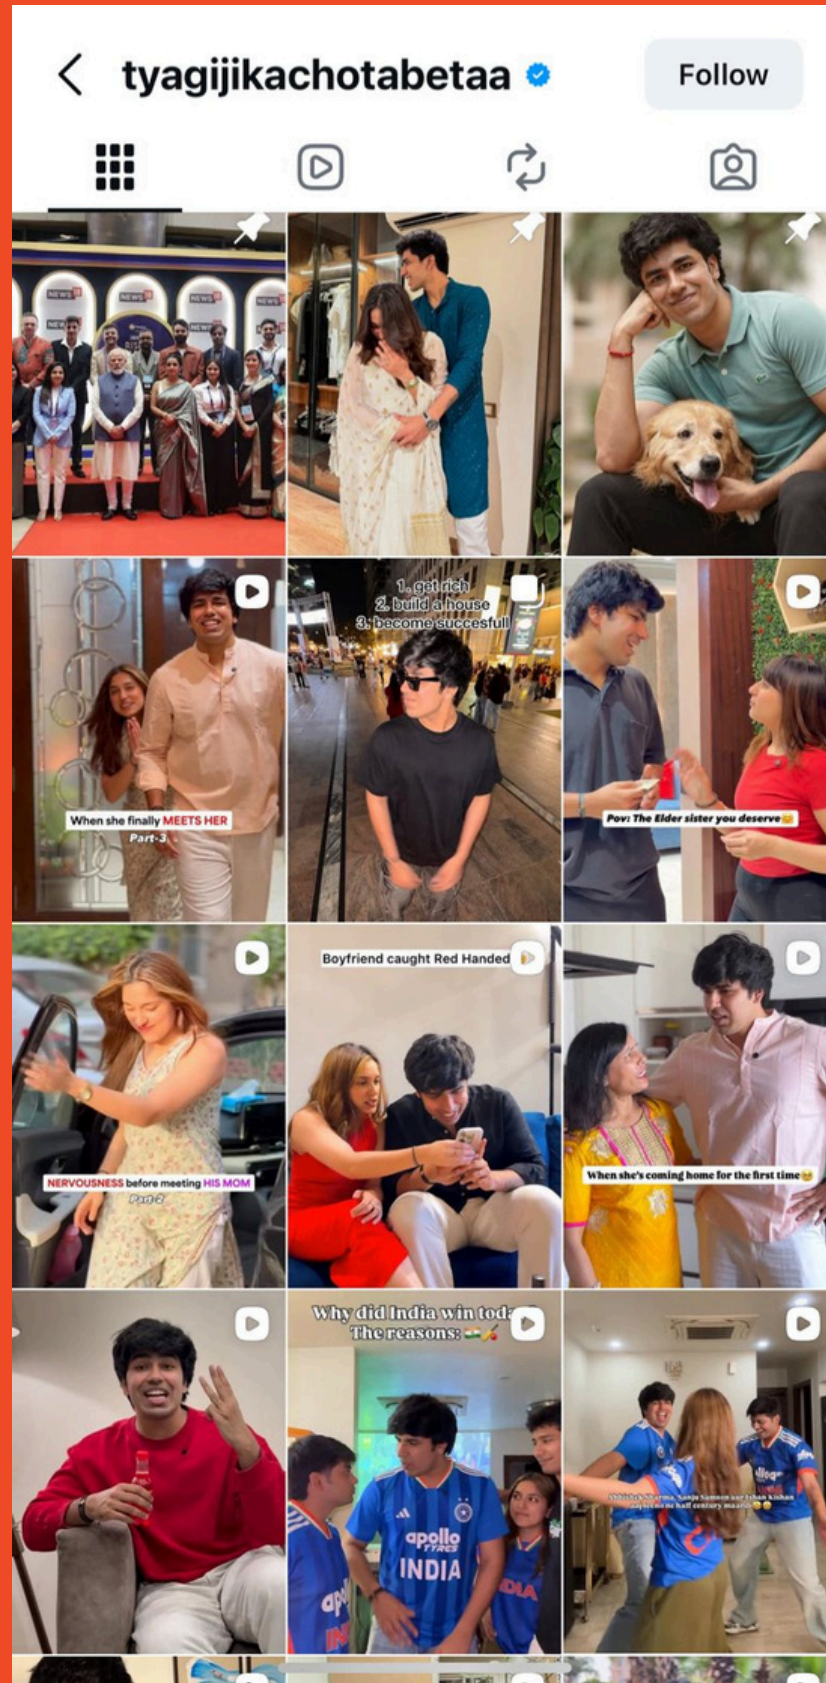

Through our IP "Unlikely Jodis", an influencer turns matchmaker!

Total strangers in the store get thrown into spontaneous conversations.

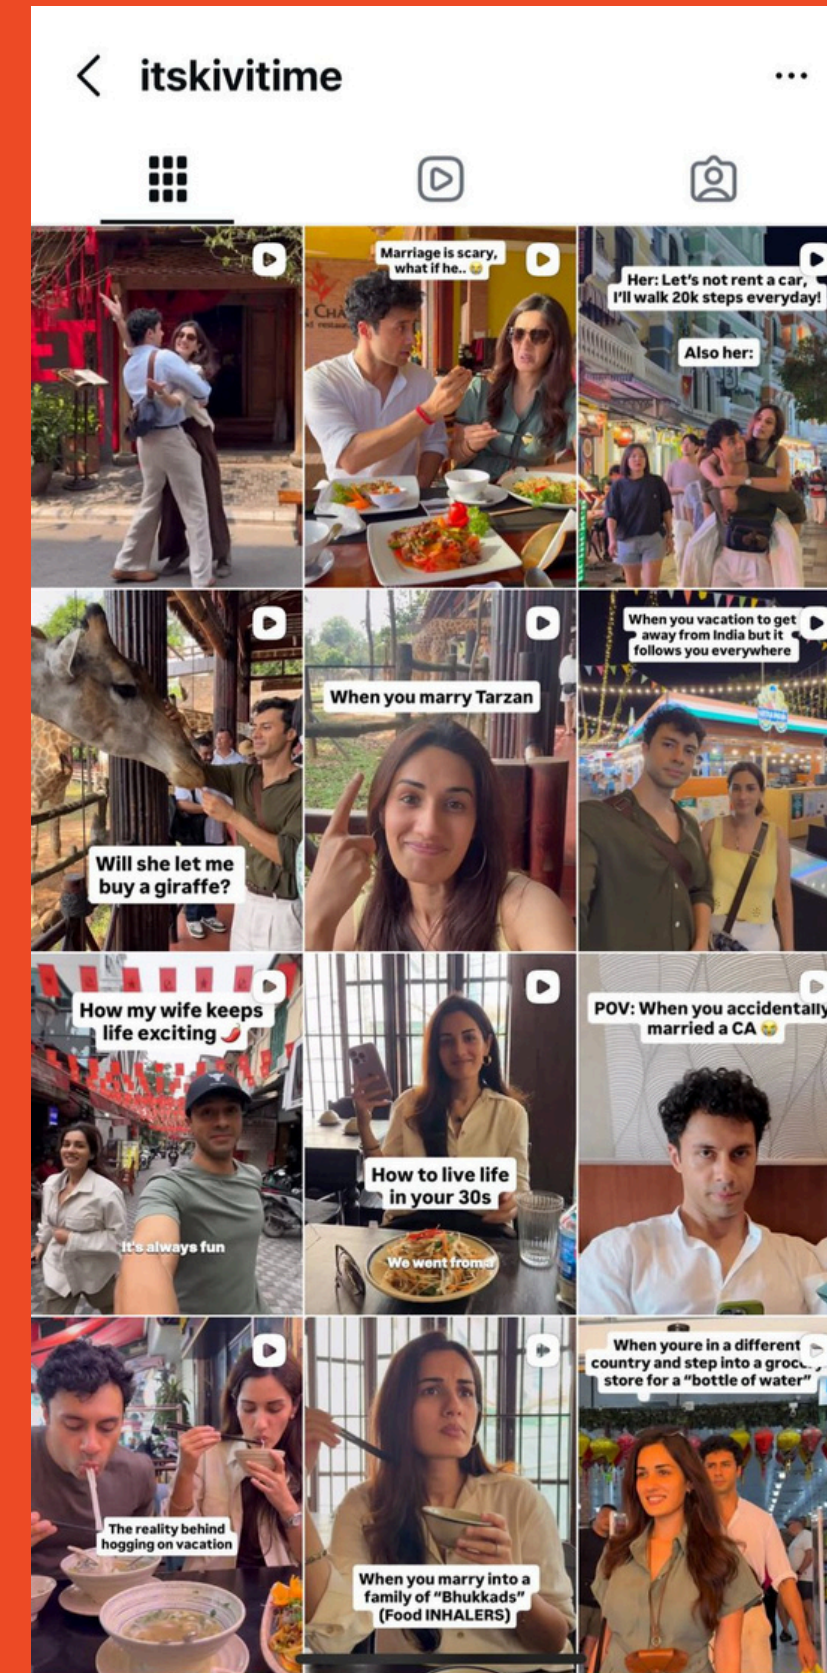

ONE CROFFLE. TWO PEOPLE. NO ESCAPE.

IT'S AWKWARD, CUTE, AND WILDLY UNPREDICTABLE.
SOMETIMES IT'S SPARKS, SOMETIMES IT'S PURE SECONDHAND EMBARRASSMENT.
YOU WATCH IT UNFOLD, CRINGE A LITTLE, AND SECRETLY HOPE THEY FALL IN LOVE.

CUSTOMER-FOCUSED CONTENT

IN-STORE

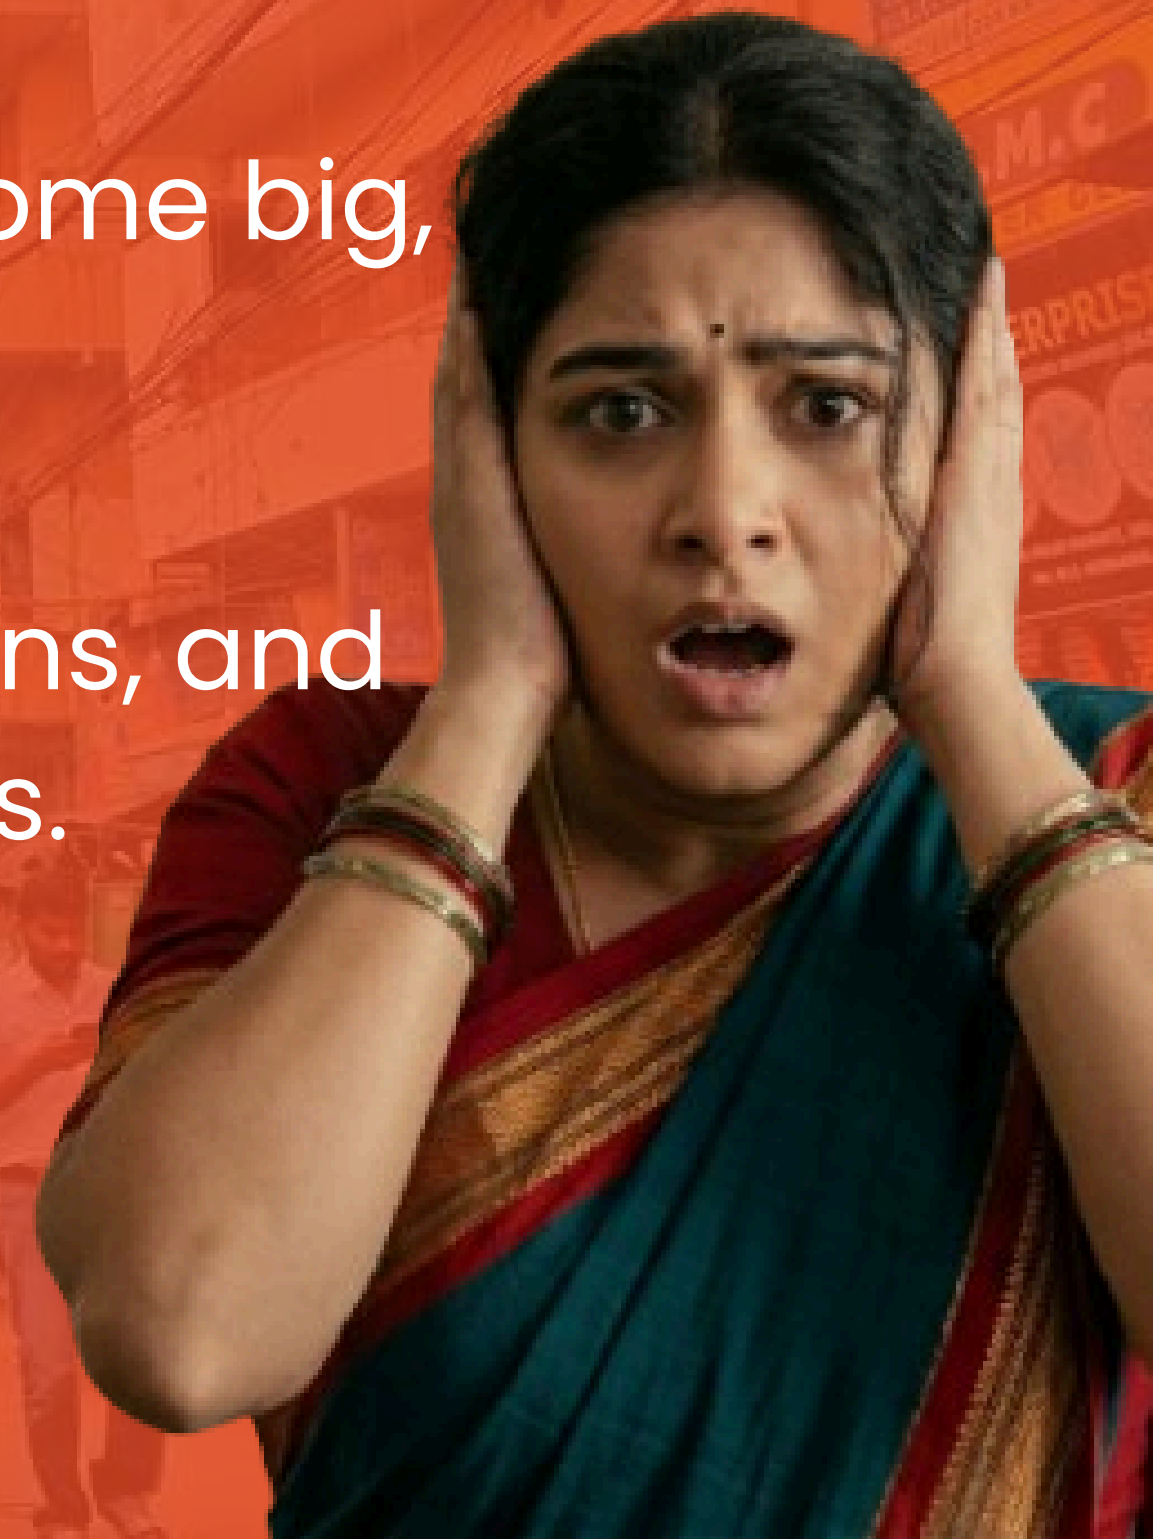

PRANKS

In a city like Delhi, public moments escalate fast.

Small situations can suddenly become big, loud, and unpredictable.

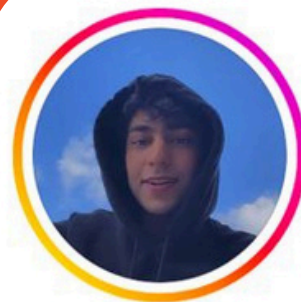

People are used to drama, reactions, and attention in everyday spaces.

So, we create a prank-led IP where real customer moments are disrupted in unexpected ways.

Each episode starts like a normal croffle order & then flips into a controlled, chaotic interaction.

Influencers are present as:

- participants
- observers
- or part of the prank

SAMPLE CONCEPTS:

"Wrong Order Recall"
Customer takes the first bite.

Staff immediately steps in:
"Sorry, this isn't yours, we'll have to take it back."
Attempts to take the
croffle away → captures reaction.

"Order Celebration"

At billing, cashier casually says:
"Kya badiya order hai."
Suddenly, a shaadi band enters, plays loudly, throws confetti,
and exits just as quickly.
Customer is left processing what just happened.

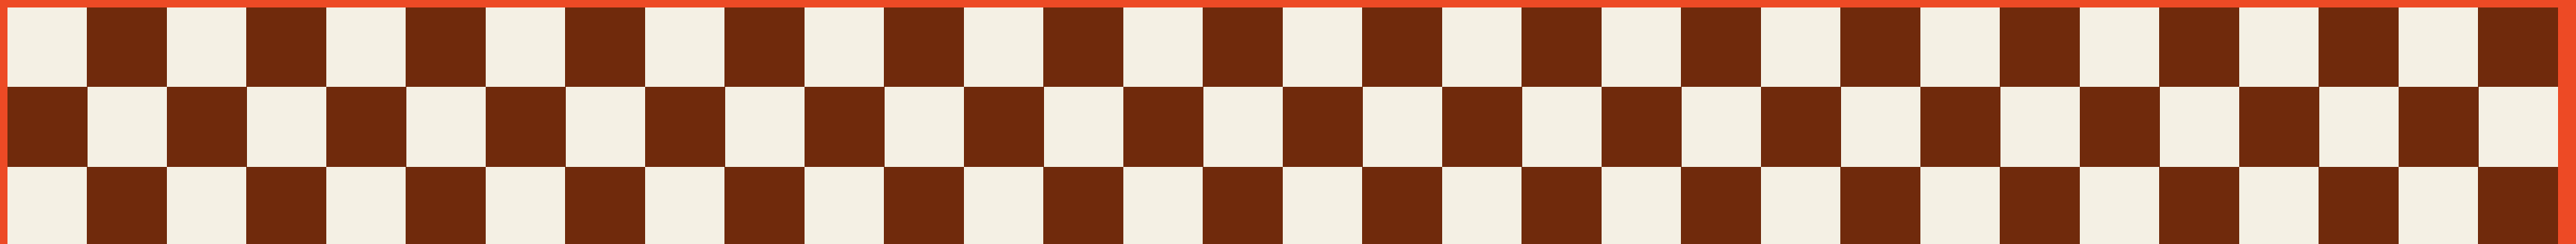

"Founder Control"

Founders guide in-store staff via earpiece.
They instruct staff to carry out slightly unusual or awkward interactions with customers.
Situations build unpredictably → reactions unfold in real time.

TALK CROFFLE

TO ME

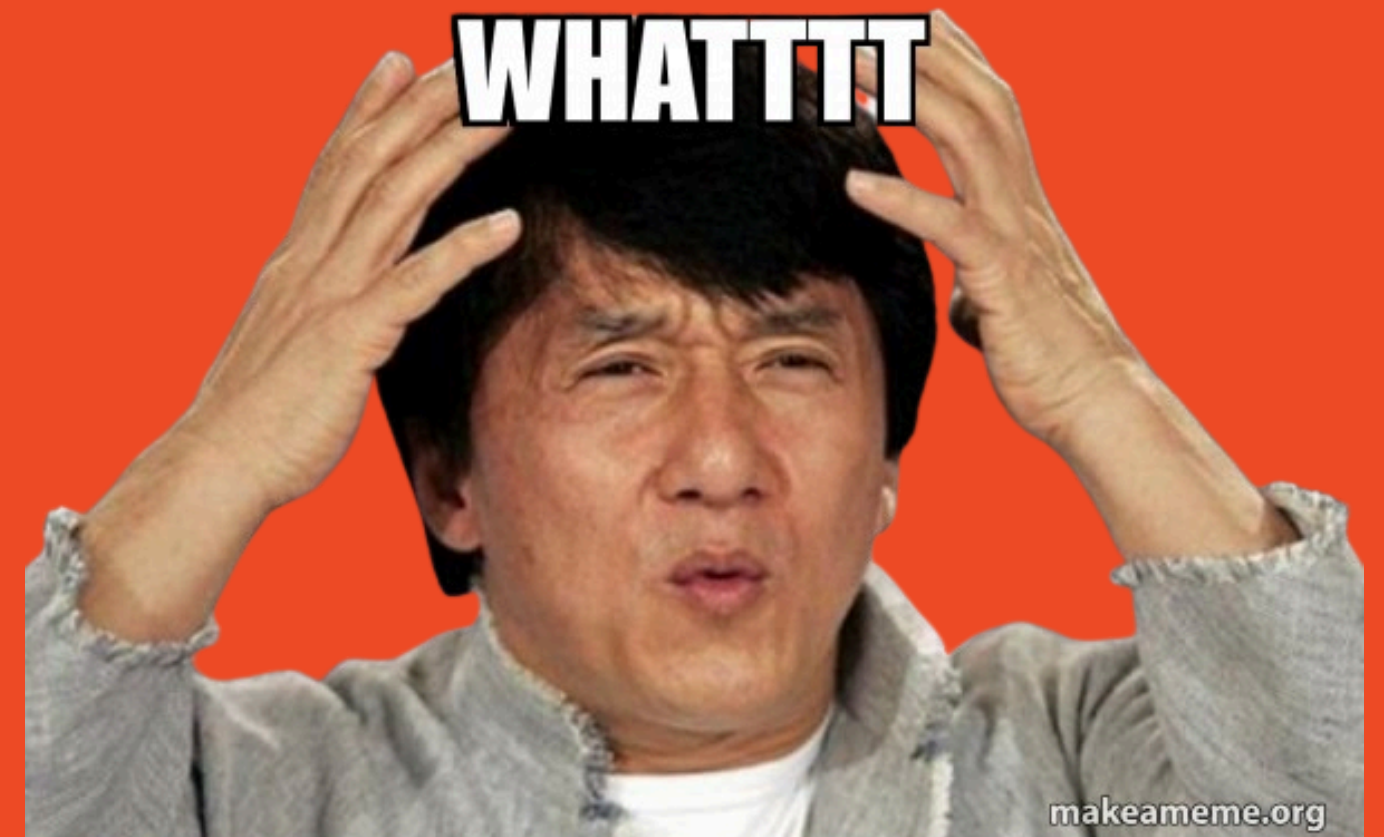

Not all surprises are sweet. Some are strange, chaotic. and way more fun!

So we turn ordering into a playful interaction, launching it with influencers first.

They type "Talk croffle to me" and unlock a hidden side of Croffle.

The influencers place real orders and receive unexpected, wacky notes tucked inside their croffles, the kind that make you laugh, pause, and go "Whaaat???"

They share these as unboxings, revealing the random notes they got, each one different, impossible to predict, and oddly addictive to watch.

And then they reveal the trick- “I typed this... and got this.”

AND JUST LIKE THAT, PEOPLE START TRYING IT FOR THEMSELVES.

SOON, EVERY CROFFLE COMES WITH SOMETHING EXTRA, A LITTLE MOMENT YOU DIDN'T SEE COMING.

PLAYFUL, EXAGGERATED BROMANCE IS A RECOGNISABLE INTERNET

GUYS OFTEN LEAN INTO OVER-THE-TOP AFFECTION AND "SUS" HUMOUR AS A FORM OF PERFORMANCE.
SO WHAT DO WE DO?

The founders of Croffle Guys challenge customers to a homiesexual / bromance face-off.

Two founders pick two guys.

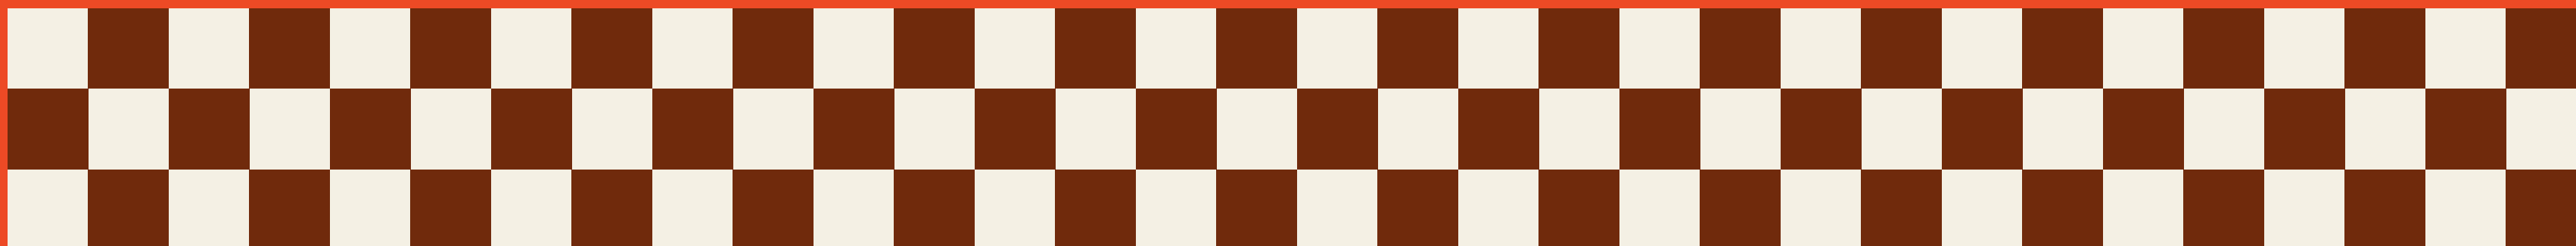

If the customers can out-bromance the founders, their meal is free.
